ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Acknowledgement is written at last, placed at first and read the least, but still it is the only opportunity to thank one and all who are responsible in completion of this entire work.

Journey is easier when you travel together. Interdependence is certainly more valuable than independence. This thesis is the result of two years of work whereby I have been accompanied and supported by many people. It is pleasant aspect that I have now the opportunity to express my gratitude for all of them.

Every author owes a debt to his teacher. Therefore, this memorable occasion provides me a unique privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my Hon’ble Major Advisor, Dr. J. B. Patel, Associate Professor, Department of Seed Science and Technology, College of Agriculture, Junagadh Agricultural University, Junagadh, for his valuable guidance, constant encouragement, constructive criticism, ever willing help and sustained interest right from the selection of my research problem up to the final shaping of the thesis in the present form.

It is my profound privilege to acknowledge gratitude to my advisory committee members, Dr. C. A. Babariya, Assistant Professor, Department of Seed Science and Technology, College of Agriculture, JAU, Junagadh, Dr. R. B. Madariya, Associate Research Scientist, Main Oilseeds Research Station, JAU, Junagadh, and Dr. U. K. Kandoliya, Assistant Professor, Department of Biochemistry, College of Agriculture, JAU, Junagadh, for their constant encouragement throughout the course of investigation. Special thanks to my Ex. Minor Guide, Dr. M. B. Patel, Ex. Assistant Research Scientist, Main Oilseeds Research Station, JAU, Junagadh, for help rendered to me during the study.

Barad, Principal and Dean, College of Agriculture, JAU, Junagadh; and Dr. C. K. Mandavia, Professor & Head of Department of Genetics and Plant Breeding, JAU, Junagadh, for providing me necessary facilities during my study. I am sincerely thankful to Dr. L. J. Raval for helping me in statistical analysis.
I offer my sincere thanks to Dr. K. H. Ribadiya, Farm Manager, Sagdividi Farm and all other staff members of Sagdividi farm, Department of Seed Science and Technology, JAU, Junagadh, for their immense help and best co-operation during the study and experimentation.

I also thankful to Dr. D. R. Mehata, Dr. N. B. Patel, Dr. M. H. Sapovadiya, Dr. Rajivkumar, Dr. S. B. Chaudhary, Dr. G. U. Kulkarni, Dr. L. K. Sharma and all the staff members of Department of Genetics and Plant Breeding, College of Agriculture, JAU, Junagadh for providing guidance and necessary help to me during the period of my study.

I wish to place on record my thanks to Mehul, Chirag, Hardik, Sunny, Harshil, Bhargav, Parth, Akash, Umesh, Pravina and Pooja for their moral support and helping hands at the critical junctures during course of project work. I also wish to thanks to my seniors Niravbhai and Chanabhai for their guidance.

I have no words to express my heartiest thanks and gratitude to my parents Shrimati Ramaben Jalu, Shri. Kanabhai Jalu, Sisters Krupa, Jagruti, Hina, Hetal and Bhavna, and brothers Kailash, Dipak, Praful and Jayraj, whose affection, sacrifices and blessing have always been the most vital source of inspiration to me.

My special thanks to Dipakhbhai (Krishna Xerox), excellent word processing and formatting of this manuscript.

There are number of well wishers to whom I cannot forget and I thank to one and all associated with me directly and indirectly.

The fulfilment of this research is due to the cooperation of many people. Therefore, I can only hope that I mention you all and those who I forget at this moment please forgive me and despite this lapse I really do appreciate you all. But above all, I owe my deep sense of gratitude to GOD “Bharadiyu Maa”, “Shakti Maa” and “Bajrangbali Hanumanji Maharaj” for their choicest blessings, strength that made it possible for me to complete my studies and enabling me to accomplish this great task of thesis work. They were the greatest source of all resources and provision, whether financial, moral or emotional; They were with me all through.
