First and foremost I would like to express my sincere sense of gratitude to my affectionate teacher and major guide Dr. D. K. Antala, Assistant Professor, Department of Renewable Energy and Rural Engineering, College of Agricultural Engineering and Technology, Junagadh Agricultural University, Junagadh for his valuable guidance, kind co-operation, critical suggestions and constant encouragement not only for the thesis work but also during the entire course of my study.

I am thankful to my minor advisor P. J. Rathod, Professor, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Biochemistry, JAU, Junagadh. His valuable criticism and his constant encouragement and suggestions given during the entire project.

Perhaps the best work I did in the course of this thesis was to choose an incredible committee. I am obliged to the member of advisory committee, Prof. D. M. Vyas, Professor and Head, Department of Processing and Food Engineering, JAU, Dr. V. P. Snagani, Assistant Professor, Department of Processing and Food Engineering, JAU, Dr. S. P. Cholera, Assistant Professor, Department of Processing and Food Engineering, JAU and Prof. A. M. Joshi, Assistant Food Microbiologist, Department of Processing and Food Engineering, JAU for their valuable suggestions, constant attention and help throughout the period of investigation.

I acknowledge with thanks to Dr. A. R. Pathak, Hon’able Vice-chancellor, JAU, Junagadh, Dr. V. P. Chovatia, Director of Research & Dean P.G. Studies, JAU, Junagadh.
I also express my sincere thanks and respect to Dr. N. K. Gontia, Principal and Dean, CAET, JAU, Junagadh for providing necessary facilities for conducting the research work.

I am thankful to Dr. P. R. Davara and Dr. V. P. Sangani for his valuable help in statistical analysis. I am thankful to all the staff members of PFE Department, JAU, Junagadh for their continuous help during the course of the study.

I am very much grateful to my seniors Viraj Naliapara, Vishal Kukadia, Tushar and my friends Neha, Vaishali, Abhisha, Jithendra and Pramod for their co-operation throughout my post graduate study. As well as juniors were always there as helpful hand and sweet smiles.

Diction is not enough to express my gratitude to my beloved family for selfless love as they put me as their foremost priority during entire life.

One last word; since it is practically impossible to list all the names who contributed to my work, it seems proper to issue a blanket of thanks for those who helped me directly or indirectly during the course of study.
