Figure 01: Age of the respondents

Figure 02: Education of the respondents
Figure 03: Caste of the respondents

- 48% General
- 35% Other backward class (OBC)
- 17% Schedule caste/Schedule tribe (SC/ST)

Figure 04: Occupation of the respondents

- 70.43% Labour
- 27.82% Agriculture
- 1.73% Agriculture + Business
Figure 05: Land holding of the respondent

Figure 06: Cattle farming experience of the respondent
Figure 07: Herd size wise distribution of the respondents

- Small (<4): 1%
- Medium (5-10): 22%
- Large (>10): 77%

Figure 08: Annual gross income of the respondents

- Low (<37395.83 Rs.): 16%
- Medium (37395.83-72082.43 Rs): 27%
- High (>72082.43 Rs): 57%
Figure 09: Family type of the respondents

Figure 10: Family size of the respondents
Figure 11: Earning member of the respondents in family

Figure 12: Level of extension service received of the respondents
Figure 13: Total milk yield of the respondents

Figure 14: Housing system of the respondents
Figure 15: Feeding practices of the respondents

Figure 16: Breeding practices of the respondents
Figure 17: Health care practices of the respondents

- Treated by: 86.08%
- Assistant veterinary field officer: 31.3%
- Deworming: 0%
- Not provide: 13.91%
- Done: 21.73%

- Local experts: 68.69%
- Veterinary assistant surgeon: 64.34%
- Done: 0%
- Vaccination: 31.3%
- Not provide: 68.69%

Figure 18: Overall knowledge level of the cattle farmers

- Low (Up to 53): 70%
- Medium (54-106): 26%
- High (107-159): 4%
Figure 19: Overall adoption level of the cattle farmers

Figure 20: Level of constraint of the respondent