ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a matter of pleasure to glance back and recall the path one traverses during the days of hard work and pre-perseverance. It has still great at this juncture to recall all the faces and spirit in the form of teachers, friends, near and dear ones. I would consider this work nothing more than incomplete without attending to the task of acknowledging the overwhelming help I received during this endeavour of mine.

Every author owes a debt to the teachers. I seize this opportunity to express my deep sense of indebtedness and profound gratitude towards my Major Guide Dr. M. M. Talpada, Assistant Research Scientist, Dry Farming Research Station, Junagadh Agricultural University, Targhadia, for his keen interest, scientific guidance and inspiration during the course of research work and preparation of this dissertation.

With immense exhilaration I would like to express my deepest gratitude to Dr. D. R. Mehta, Associate Professor, Department of Genetics and Plant Breeding, College of Agriculture, Junagadh Agricultural University, Junagadh, he perpetually assisted me with data acquisition and problem solution. Without whose prolific and immaculate guidance and tenacious help this thesis would not have been imaginable.

With great gratification I would like to express my sincere veneration to my Minor Guide Dr. G. U. Kulkarni, Assistant Professor, Department of Genetics and Plant Breeding, College of Agriculture, Junagadh Agricultural University, Junagadh. I feel great indulgence in introducing my committee member Dr. D. V. Patel, Associate Professor, Department of Agricultural Statistics, College of Agriculture, Junagadh Agricultural University, Junagadh for their valuable suggestions during the period of my study.

I acknowledge with thanks to Dr. A. R. Pathak, Hon’ble Vice-chancellor, J.A.U., Junagadh, Dr. V. P. Chovatia, Director of Research, J.A.U., Junagadh, Dr. A. M. Parakhia, Registrar, J.A.U., Junagadh, Dr. B. K. Sagarka, Principal and Dean, College of Agriculture, J.A.U., Junagadh and Dr. A. V. Barad, Ex. Principal and Dean, College of Agriculture, J.A.U., Junagadh for providing me necessary facilities to conduct the research work.

I am sincerely thankful to Dr. M. A. Vaddoria, Dr. N. B. Patel, Dr. L. J. Raval, Dr. Rajivkumar, Dr. S. B. Chaudhari, Dr. M. H. Sapovadiya and
