Gratitude takes three forms “A feeling from heart, an expression in words and a giving in return”, I sincerely thank all those who directly made this thesis possible.

First of all I would thank God Almighty for his grace and mercy which made it possible for me to complete this present venture. It is my privilege to express my deepest sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my Major Advisor Dr. D. R. Kanzaria, Associate professor, Department of Horticulture, College of Agriculture, JAU, Junagadh for his interest, enthusiasm, innovative suggestions and dynamic guidance during the period of research and preparation of manuscript.

I am extremely grateful to the members of my Advisory Committee, Dr. M. S. Solanki, Research Scientist, Department of Agricultural chemistry and soil science; Dr. N. D. Polara, Associate professor, Department of Horticulture and Dr. N. J. Rankja, Assistant Professor and Nodal Officer, Department of Agricultural Statistics, who have kindly rendered their cooperation, encouragement and suggestions throughout my course of investigation.

I am sincerely thankful to Dr. A. R. Pathak, Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor; Dr. V. P. Chovatia, Director of Research; Dr. B. K. Sagaraka, Principal, College of Agriculture, JAU, Junagadh and all staff members of central library for their ever willing co-operation and encouragement for providing all necessary facilities during the course of this study.

I feel honoured to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. R. S. Chovatia, Professor and Head, Department of Horticulture; Dr. K. M. Karetha, Dr. D. K. Varu and other technical and non-technical staff members of the Department of Horticulture and all the members of Lalbaug for their necessary help and useful suggestions during the tenure of this investigation.

I am highly indebted to my beloved parents Shri. Bhagavanbhai and Smt. Motiben, who had been putting all their efforts to bring me up, encouraged me to always move ahead in life defeating all obstacles that come along my way and showed complete faith in my abilities. Without their blessings the present endeavour would have never been fulfilled. Words would never be able to fathom the depth of my feelings for my dear sisters, Dr. Swati & Tiku and lovely brother Mr. Perfect whose stirring efforts, constant support, conducive ideas, comforting words and good council strengthened me the most during the pursuit of this endeavour.

I convey my heartiest thanks to Miss M. M. Solanki (school teacher) for motivational support during the entire span of study. Who believed in my abilities and always reminded me that everything is possible.

“A friend is one whom you can pour your heart out.” It is neither possible nor probably within the scope of this “acknowledgement” to record any feeling of affection, love and thanks towards my friends Jignasa, Preity, Farheen, Krunali (Baba), Aarati, Rupa, Krupali and Priyanka who kept me floating over the world. I am thankful to them for their support, encouragement and unrestrained help during period of this study.

Last but not the least, I record my sincere thanks to all beloved and respected people who helped me but could not find a separate mention.

I am overwhelmed with gratitude to all my respondents, without whose whole hearted co-operation, this study would not have been fruitful memory.

Finally, I express my sincere indebtedness to “GOD”. Who did all this through me.
