ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a matter of great pleasure to glance back and recall the path one travelled during the days of hard work and perseverance. It is a great feeling at this juncture to recall all the faces of teachers, friends, near and dear ones. I would consider this work nothing more than incomplete without attending to the task of acknowledging the overwhelming support I received during my research study.

Every author owes a debt to the teachers. I seize this opportunity to express my deep sense of indebtedness and profound gratitude towards my Major Guide Dr. B. K. GADHAVI, Assistant Research Scientist, Department of Agricultural Economics, Junagadh Agricultural University, Junagadh for his keen interest, scientific guidance, constructive criticism and inspiration during the course work and preparation of this dissertation.
